

Working with our partner, Prison Fellowship Singapore and the volunteer team in care club is God's privilege to me in experiencing God's presence in this ministry. Out of my inadequacy in content development, content delivery and engaging with children with patience and love, I experience God's patient teaching and guiding me in my many short comings. I saw diversity of talents weaved together by God's wisdom to fulfil His good purpose. To God be the glory. Chee Chi Hoon, Children's Care Club

Through serving both as an In-care and After-care volunteer, I have a deeper appreciation of Isaiah 42:3a, " A bruised reed he will not break, and a smouldering wick he will not snuff out". I have learnt not to see the prisoners through my own finite lens and not to judge others. Instead, God has shown me that in order to serve in prison ministry, I need to put on His lens of love, acceptance and grace. Through this, we can then see His purpose and hope that springs forth from Isaiah 42:3a. Ernest Choo, In-care & After-care

Every Incare session I am a part of is like having front row seats to watching God in action. The Brothers' hunger and desire for God's Grace and Glory is real and each and every time I walk out of the Cluster, I feel an ascension in Spirit having witnessed upfront God's amazing grace and redeeming power. Matthew Lai, Incare

I have enjoyed my volunteer journey with the inmates, I have seen many broken hearts with eyes that sincerely desire to seek God. I have also seen how God loves and transforms these inmates to become a living testimony of His redeeming grace. Through them, I fully understand and experience the verse from 2 Corinthians 12:9 "But He said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.' Therefore, I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me." Xiyu Chen, Incare

I have experienced the compassion of Christ through my own personal transformation in an increased serving capacity and this compassion working in me to bear witness to one soul at a time. Tony Chan, Incare

Sweet honey in the rock. Oh, taste and see, that the Lord is good. Oh, it tastes like honey in the rock. It never fails to touch me when the voices of our inmate brothers rise above their situation and pain, as they sing and worship during in-care chapel service. Being able to share in their journey and praying with them has been a privilege. The ground is level at the foot of the cross, as we surrender, taste the sweet honey in the rock and look to God's love and forgiveness together. Joy Quah, Incare

Throughcare truly exemplifies the cliché, “it takes a village to raise a child” and it has also given me a new realisation that “the prisoner’s own village” too, are often lost with pains, needing support, love and care.

The Lord has opened my eyes to extend our befriending outreach from the incarcerated in prison, to their children, parents and spouse; with a hope in Christ for rebuilding bridges within the family relationships and with God, trusting that when one believes in the Lord Jesus, he and his household will be saved.

Through our partnership with Prison Fellowship Singapore and Halfway Houses, volunteers are privileged to learn to grow in our own discipleship in Jesus as we learn to share in His love to care, support and give to others along our way. Judy Tan, Throughcare
